Since 1955, we look for the quality around the world.
Our mission is to keep the same passion for flavor day by day, year by year.

AGROVER s.r.l. was born in the year 2000 among the vast rice fields of Vercelli, thanks to the Mottino family and its fifty-year-old experience in the sector of rice processing and marketing, an experience influenced both by tradition and technology.

Its young team, who carefully monitors the ongoing evolution of the market, allows Agrover s.r.l. to deal also with the marketing of new products that satisfy a wide range of customers, without turning its back on tradition. All customers' orders and needs are duly and flexibly fulfilled, from sale to delivery.

AGROVER s.r.l. products are sold in Europe and in the Mediterranean Basin to retailers, restaurants, mass consumption, ethnic markets and industry food.

Quality values.

AGROVER s.r.l. uses the most advanced and modern technologies to mill, process and select different types of rice, to provide its customers with the best finished product as far as quality is concerned. Our Laboratory staff carries out checks on the product during every working phase, from the arrival of raw materials to delivery.

AGROVER s.r.l. is ISO 9001 - BRC Food - IFS - BioAgriCert certified.
